

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections as it has improved our private time at home by lessening the "nuisance" solicitation calls. Formerly we received several a day and now receive less than 1 per week. Please leave this alone - it's great!!